A Morris Dance

Instructional CD Track 38

English Folk Dance

Strike up a measure, sprightly this way
And we'll dance an idle hour away
Dance in the garden, dance on the lea
To a Morris music light and free

Greenly call the rushes
Budding is the willow
Spring now is here and all is fair
And she rides on the south wind
Sweet and warm with May
And a wreath of hawthornes deck her hair

Why not dance when happy songs resound
In the trees and hedges all around
Say farewell to toil and work a day
For the dance will drive all cares away

Chinese Spring Song

Instructional CD Track 39

folk song

Sadly sweet the nightingale sings
Where small apricots hang
Moon guitar and flute softly ring
Far off chimes and gongs sound

Light wind stirs the mulberry tree
Jasmine sweet in the dew
Stars are caught and held in the scent
One gray heron takes flight

The First Dandelion

Instructional CD Track 45

a poem by Walt Whitman

Simple and fresh and fair
From winter's close emerging
Forth from it's sunny nook of sheltered grass

Innocent, golden, calm as the dawn
The spring's first dandelion shows it's face
It shows it's trustful face

A Musical Mix Up

Instructional CD Track 42

Vanderveer/Pitcher

Suppose all the birds read songs from a book
And sang all the tunes with a very wise look
Singing do, me, sol, fa, me, re, do

Suppose all the students sat up in a tree
And sang like the birds, a twitter, chee, chee
Not this do, me, sol, fa, me, re, do

But birds need the tree tops and want their own songs
And we need to stay where all students belong
Singing do, me, sol, fa, me, re, do
